“Adecco Singapore Launches New iPhone Job App”

Singapore, 7th March 2011: Adecco Singapore, a subsidiary of the world’s largest human resources and staffing services firm, has announced the launch of its new iPhone App ‘Adecco Singapore Jobs’, which is available by free download on iTunes and is the first application of its kind in Singapore to allow job seekers to both search and apply for jobs from the convenience of their iPhone.

“The new Adecco iPhone App makes it even easier for job seekers with iPhones to view and apply for jobs whenever they so choose. Not only does the App list the latest jobs on offer from Adecco, but it also features useful career tips and advice that are of benefit to today’s busy job seeker” said Lynne Ng, Regional Director, Adecco SEA.

The Adecco App includes a wide range of easy to use functionalities all designed to provide access to job opportunities and career information. Specific features include ‘Latest Jobs’, ‘Knowledge’, ‘My Job Dashboard’ and ‘Contact Adecco’.

“With Singapore’s booming economy, it is crucial for Adecco to quickly match candidates to jobs. The Adecco iPhone App is an additional way of helping Singaporeans to find work within the shortest timeframe”, added Ng.

In addition to the new iPhone App, Adecco Singapore is also active on Facebook, LinkedIn, Twitter and other social media platforms – including its own Job Blog - that allows the company to connect quickly and effectively with both its clients and candidates.
